

WASHINGTON TOWN BOARD
AGENDA
March 9, 2023

Supervisor Gary Ciferri:

- Open meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance

Bookkeeper Lois Petrone:

- Monthly Report

Building Inspector James Finley:

- Monthly Report

Highway Superintendent Joseph Spagnola:

- Winter is NOT over, ordered 570 tons of salt between 2/7/23 to 3/9/23. The price of salt will be going up this year!
- New truck (2021) is back, had some small electrical issues and a suspect 4-wheel drive hub. Waiting for the hub to be replaced. Both 2021 and 2022 CV's are working. They are designated for dirt roads; however, during 2 recent storms when we did not plow the dirt, they were used on our blacktop with great results.
- RFP's for Killearn Road are here. Please review the file.
- To date we have had 15 storms. Two more are expected, one Friday pm into Saturday and one on Tuesday.

Recreation Director Danielle Szalewicz:

- Monthly Report

Town Clerk Mary Alex:

- Tax Collection – the Town has been paid in full: $2,948,850.70
- Reminder of Special Meeting: Tuesday, March 14, 2023
To receive RFP and authorize an Engineering firm to proceed with a design and RFP for a well at the town park
- Minutes from January 11 and February 23 have been completed by Town Clerk Alex and the minutes from February 9 have been completed by Deputy Clerk Briggs. They have been distributed and posted to the website.

Councilman Robert Audia:

- Update on the Generator Installation
- EV Parking Update

Councilman Rochfort:

- Comprehensive Plan Addendum – FEAF is currently under review by Dutchess County Planning. A response will be provided to the town within the next week.
- Killlearn Road – The Town received 6 responses for the RFP for a Topographic and Right of Way Survey. They are under review to ensure all qualifications are being met. The Board can award the bid at the Tuesday, March 14 meeting.
